Amaya Rodriguez is a former Principal Ballet Dancer with over 20 years of international performing experience and a dedicated ballet instructor committed to inspiring dancers of all ages. She performed leading roles with the National Ballet of Cuba, Ballet de Monterrey, and Kansas City Ballet, appearing in over 20 countries and more than 200 theaters worldwide before retiring from the stage in 2025. Her extensive repertoire includes principal roles in Swan Lake, Giselle, Sleeping Beauty, The Nutcracker, Don Quixote, and many other classical and contemporary ballets.

As an instructor and Certified Yoga Teacher, Amaya specializes in classical ballet, pointe, repertoire, variations, choreography, and creative movement. She is passionate about developing strong technique, artistry, confidence, and a lifelong love of dance in every student. Known for her encouraging and positive teaching style, she strives to create an environment where dancers can grow both technically and artistically while reaching their full potential.
